SOMEWHERE IN HOLLAND
Nov. 4, 1944

Dear Folks,

Can't write very much or very often now, although I'd rather write letters all day long. We are doing what we can do while there is still fighting going on over here, the war isn't over for us. And we are fighting. It's nasty business and I wish it was over.

Your mail gets here and is delivered to our fox holes so keep writing. I am well and in good health, so there is nothing to worry about. Say hello to everyone as I can't write to them all now.

Love,
Aersk
