Dear Herach,

Judging by the news we read you must be having a tough time. We all earnestly hope things come out O.K.

Rhya (+ I) are patiently waiting for the next two months to go by — we figure the baby will be born sometime around Feb. 20th, which is our wedding anniversary. Some planning, eh?

My Senior basketball team is doing fine. We have played 9 practice games so far & only dropped one. During this next week we are entered in a tourney at the U. of C.

I'll let you know how we make out. Our league games start when we go back to school.
If the kids I have can keep improving for the next 6 weeks - -
- who knows - we might win another city Championship - - - I hope.

Rhya & I now have a five room (really six because of the enclosed sleeping porch) apartment that we are very proud of. It's quite a treat to be able to walk from one room to another. Heretofore all we have had was one room & the "library". I'm getting expert at laying linoleum, enameling toilet seats, fixing electric cords etc. - Think there's any future in it?

Florence, Leo, Ina, Sarah, Ben, Paula, ^{Rhya's sister her husband} Bernice, Charles (their baby boy - 2 yrs. old + quite a guy) Rhya's mother, Rhya + myself. (I guess I left out Uncle Jack, Aunt Ida, Bea + Johanna + their families) all wish you lots of luck. Remember, I am a good person to write to if you feel the need of griping or getting something off your chest. If you need anything that we can get for you ^{(which excludes a} ^{blonde or red-head)} do not hesitate to mention it.
