Mrs. Rose Surrigan,
1552, 6th Avenue,
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA.

Dear Mrs. Surrigan,

It is a pleasure to bring you greetings from the American Red Cross Club where your son, Herschel, is spending furlough time just at present.

It is a joy to have him here. He is a perfect gentleman in every sense of the word, and one of whom you must be very proud.

While he has been here he presented a small corsage of flowers to one of our staff, and she was so grateful for this kind thought on the part of your son.

I can assure you he is in fine physical condition, and in very happy spirits. He appears to be enjoying his furlough to the fullest extent.

I know you are looking forward to the day your son is able to be home with you again, and he also is looking forward to that day. I trust the time of that happy reunion is not too far distant.

Continuing to serve him and other men coming to the Club, I am,

Sincerely yours,

WILLIAM B. CRUISE

DIRECTOR.
