Dear Mother and Everyone

I thought surely we would be on our way by now but it's the same old story about not depending upon anything in the army. One large group moved out two days ago and most of the officers are leaving today. So, maybe my turn will come soon. Who knows?

The food is very good here. We get fresh eggs for breakfast almost everyday. And chicken & steak ~~are~~ quite common for lunch.

Everybody at home is fine, I hope. Each hour of waiting makes me more and more anxious to get on my way so I can see you all again. Give my regards to everyone. See you soon.
